THEIR GREAT BRAVERY

Calls Down Blessing of Almighty On Them in Their Hard Task of Defense.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 20.—The Czar has sent the following telegram to General Stoessel at Port Arthur:

"In my name the whole of Russia commands you to congratulate the garrison troops, seamen and troops at Port Arthur for their success in the battles of July 26, 27 and 28. I firmly believe that it is their desire to support by their bravery the glory of our arms. I heartily thank all. Let the blessing of the Almighty rest upon them in their hard task of preserving the fortress from the enemy's assault."

BY JAPANESE

SENATOR HOAR'S CONDITION.

Patient Holding His Own, but Chances of Recovery Are Small.

Worcester, Mass., Aug. 20.—General Rockwood Hoar has given out the following statement regarding the condition of Senator George F. Hoar: "The senator is holding his own, though he is very weak. The chief cause for anxiety is a trouble with his left lung, which caused his prostration at the end of last week. This, however, develops but little, and it can be controlled and he can retain his strength for the next two days there will be a ground for hope."

Sensor Hoar is suffering, it is believed, from a postoperative congestion of the left lung due to impaired heart action, and the belief is general that chances for his recovery are small. Doctors who have had similar cases say that the general breaking down of the senator physically, with the congestion of the left lung, is a bad omen, and they say that his chances for recovery are very slight unless the lung clears immediately.

His left lung is partly filled with products that the blood does not take away as it should in its natural course, and these products are gradually, but surely, filling up the air spaces.

DEVERY OPENS A TAVERN.

Says He's Following Bishop Potter's Example.

New York, Aug. 20.—William J. Devery says he is a follower of Bishop Potter. He has opened a "tavern" at Rockaway Beach and called it The Pump. He says, "This ain't no Subway tavern; this is on the level."

Johnny Byrnes and Mike Bergen will run the place, which used to be Kehoe's hotel. Meals will be served at "all hours," and Devery says he will be "around."

"Sure I've opened a hotel," said "Big Bill." "If the business is good enough for Bishop Potter, it's good enough for me."

The place is at Mott avenue and White street and has a number of rooms upstairs. Devery says he has given instructions that the last three rooms are never to be rented.

"I ain't running no Waldorf-Astoria," he explained, "but them three rooms is for people that's broke and ain't got the coin. They can come right along and whenever they wants to."

A Vermont Bank Fails.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The People's National bank at Swanton, Vt., has been closed by order of the comptroller of the currency. National Bank Examiner Frank L. Fisk has been appointed receiver. The specific cause of the suspension was the inability of the bank officials to collect on a number of notes which were due and which were held as collateral by the institution.

Good Grain Harvest in Russia.

Saratoff, Russia, Aug. 20.—The harvest in the government of Samara, in the east of European Russia, is the best in many years. The grain crop, mostly wheat, aggregates about $54,084,900 bushels.

HEAVY FIRE LOSS
AT HINESBURGH

Two Business Blocks of H. M. Hull and One Barn—Damage Placed at $21,000.

Hinesburgh, Aug. 20.—Two large business blocks, belonging to H. M. Hull and a barn of Oscar Meade of this village were entirely destroyed by fire last evening, causing a property loss of over $21,000. The fire started in the block north of Mr. Hull's store, but how is not explained. It was soon beyond control and spread from this block to the one occupied by Mr. Hull as a store. Mr. Meade's barn which was near where the fire started was also burned.

In the north block were the barber shop and living rooms of C. B. Lucia, which were entirely destroyed. J. H. Allen's harness shop was also burned and besides Mr. Hull's store the living rooms of Dr. McKibbin were burned. Some of the contents were saved but a large amount was lost. The total loss is estimated to be $7,000 on the buildings and from $12,000 to $14,000 on the contents.

Several buildings near by caught fire but the flames were extinguished by the bucket brigade which formed and did very effective work. The store of Mr. Hull was one of the landmarks of Hinesburgh village and was one of the oldest stores in Chittenden county.

WHAT THEY ASK FOR.

Rutland Marble Employee Here in Interest of His Union.

James J. Doyle, president of the Rutland branch of the International Marble Workers Association, is in the city in the interest of his organization. He states that the truth of the conditions that have existed in the marble quarries and shops are unknown to those outside of Rutland. In the plants of the Vermont Marble Co., the Fowler Marble Co., and the Columbia Quarrying Co., the ten hour day is in force. The wages paid to their skilled labor is not as high as paid to common laborers in this city. Cutters and setters receive from $1.85 to $2.50, carvers from $2.50 to $3.00, copers from $1.50 to $2.00, polishers from $1.40 to $1.85, bed rubbers from $1.65 to $2.00, sawyers from $1.35 to $1.65. The rate of wages asked for by the Marble Workers Union is cutters and setters $2.50, carvers $3.00, copers $2.25, polishers $2.00, bed rubbers $2.00, sawyers $2.00 per day of nine hours. The union is also asking for the introduction of the weekly pay day, the abolition of piece work and the recognition of the organization.

Says Mr. Doyle, the Fowler Marble Co. is evicting union men's families from their tenements. All the company stores have refused credit to employees on strike as is their intention to starve their employees into submission. Mr. Doyle is in the city with credentials from his organization asking the assistance of the union men in this vicinity to aid them morally and financially in their struggle for a living wage rate and the nine hour day.

Italy Threatens Tripoli.

Island of Jerba, Tunis, Aug. 20.—The Italian cruiser Amerigo Vesputi has left Messina, Sicily, for the port of Derna, province of Barca, eastern Tripoli, to support the demands of Italy for an apology and a salute of the Italian flag as reparation for the maltreatment of an Italian consular servant at Derna. The governor of Barca hesitates to comply with the demands.

The Longest Novel.

Samuel Richardson's novel, "Clarissa Harlowe," published in 1748, is generally conceded to be the longest piece of fiction in the English language. It contains 1,134,000 words.

A Great Salt Field.

The great field of crystallized salt at Salton, Cal., in the middle of the Colorado desert, is 264 feet below the level of the sea and is more than 1,000 acres in extent. Its surface is as white as snow, and when the sun is shining its brilliance is too dazzling for the eye. The field is constantly supplied by the many salt springs in the adjacent foothills.

Cotton in Europe.

Cotton and cotton weaving were introduced into Europe by Alexander the Great, who sent the material, the seed and the workmen from Persia and India.

Baked Fish.

Baked fish has far more flavor than boiled, though it does not look so nice. The fish should be placed on a greased tin, covered with buttered paper, and cooked in a moderate oven. The cook should be very careful in baking fish not to dry it up. Serve with a good white sauce poured over and garnished with chopped parsley, capers, lemon or hard boiled egg.

Mourning Colors.

In Burma and Brittany yellow is the color of mourning, in Persia pale brown, in Ethiopia grayish brown, in Syria and Armenia blue, in China white.

Asparagus.

Asparagus is the oldest plant used for food.

Dwarfs as Pets.

Fashionable women in all ages seem to have had a morbid penchant for freaks. In the middle ages women of the upper classes kept human dwarfs.

The Ox and the Corn.

According to Jewish statutes it was unlawful to muzzle the ox engaged in treading out the corn, the animal being allowed to eat his fill.

WEAK HITTING,
MANY ERRORSCombination Too Much
For Barre-Montpelier.

WE LOST TO BURLINGTON

Briggs, Hired Box Artist, Did Not Prove Successful, Sheldon Finishing. Score Was 7 to 5.

Burlington, Aug. 20.—Barre-Montpelier again went down to defeat before the Burlington aggregation yesterday by a score of 7 to 5. The visitors put up a poor exhibition of base ball, nearly every man on the team contributing an error, and every misplay was costly. Apperious was credited with two errors on grounders. Burlington rolled up six errors but they were not as costly.

"Doc" Lawson pitched his first game against the Hyphens and did superb work, holding the hits down to three up to the sixth inning when Apperious pounced out a home run and Sheldon made a three bagger. Lawson was then relieved by "Rube" Vickers. Briggs, a new twirler for the Hyphens, was easy meat for the home team who found him for seven hits in five innings though only one earned run was made. Sheldon was put into the box in the sixth and did effective work allowing but one hit and two runs, errors being chiefly responsible for the runs.

The visitors batted first and after Poland and Dorman had filed out Morgan drew a pass and went to second on Nash's single. Morgan made a pretty steal to third. A hit was needed for the run but Apperious settled it by striking out. Two hits and an error gave Burlington a run in their half of the first. Lawrence singled and Brouters went out short to first. Lawrence taking second. Hayes fanned and Hazelton singled to Apperious who let the ball through his legs and Lawrence scored. Simon filed out to Morgan.

In the third Burlington scored again on two hits and two errors. Brouters went out short to first. Hayes singled but was out at second on Briggs' throw of Hazelton's grounder. Hazelton took second on Dorman's miff of Nash's throw and scored on Simon's single which Stewart fumbled.

The visitors made their first tally in the fourth. Morgan reached first on an error by Simon and went to second on Nash's sacrifice. Apperious got first on Nash's grounder to Hartman who tried to throw Morgan out at third but was too slow in fielding. McEnaney went out second to first, and Morgan scored. Apperious stole second, and Flynn filed out to right field.

The Hyphens failed to score in the fifth but the home team tallied once. Hayes singled and went to second on Apperious' error. He took third on Hazelton's out, second to first. Simon hit to Morgan who threw him out at first, but Flynn was too slow on his return to the plate and Hayes scored.

Barre-Montpelier scored twice in the ninth on Apperious' home run which scored Morgan also.

With Sheldon in the box, Denninger singled. Hartman bunted to Sheldon who picked up the ball but dropped it when he went to throw to second and both runners were safe. Lawson struck out. Denninger got third on passed ball by Nash and scored on Lawrence's fly to Stewart.

The seventh brought two more tallies for the visitors and the home team a zero, making the score 5 to 0 in Burlington's favor. Stewart fanned out, but Sheldon surprised the local fans by driving out a three bagger to left field which, had he been a good runner, would probably have meant a home run. Poland drew a pass, Dorman got first on his grounder to short who tried to throw Poland out at second. Morgan filed out to second and Sheldon scored.

Nash got first on a fielders choice and Apperious filed out to center. In the eighth the home team clinched the game with one more tally.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Still we are two points ahead.

Rutland shut out Plattsburgh yesterday 8 to 0, hitting Shultz hard. Plattsburgh hit O'Brien for eight but couldn't get a man around the bases.

A Montpelier young lady enthusiast suggests that some member of the Hyphens is wearing an opal ring or pin and hereby begs of him to dispose of it, at least until the end of the base ball season.

Both the fielding and the batting slump of the leaders is remarkable. You are not playing ball with soft boiled eggs, boys, but with really, truly spaulding leaguers; and the other teams are no mean opponents either. May the beginning of the next week see a change!

Speaking of accommodations for visiting crowds Burlington had them all beaten. Out of the 300 from Barre and Montpelier, 200 bought grandstand tickets and had a grand stand-out in the field. There wasn't a seat left in the grandstand, bleachers or anywhere unless it was on the right field fence.

NEW TEACHERS AT GODDARD.

Miss Alice Averill of This City in Charge of Music-School Opens Sept. 6.

The committee having the matter in charge have met with unusually good success in securing teachers to fill the vacancies at Goddard Seminary. One of the most important positions is that of teacher of instrumental music, and the committee take much satisfaction in announcing that Miss Alice Averill of this city has been secured to take charge of this department. Miss Averill has had ten years of constant study with Mrs. Morong, one of the best teachers in Boston, and has also had experience in teaching the last few years. Miss Averill will take up the work with a love for the school and an interest in its welfare, for both her parents were "Goddards" in the early seventies, and her grandfather, Judge Tilden, served on the executive committee several years and did yeoman service in bringing the school to Barre.

Not for many years has an alumnus of the school been called as a teacher, but one has been secured for next year who has always been most enthusiastic over the character of the work done in the school and who is filled with the "Goddard Spirit." Miss Rachel Robinson, '07, of Ferrisburgh. Miss Robinson is perhaps as well known by the townspeople as any graduate of recent years. Her father, author of the "Uncle Lisha Stories," gained quite a reputation as an artist, and she certainly has inherited all of his artistic ability.

Since leaving Goddard she has studied a number of winters in New York and has done much work in portrait painting and illustrating. All friends of Goddard, everywhere, will be pleased to hear that she is to have charge of the art department next year.

Miss Florence Walker, Tufts, '04, of West Somerville, Mass., will take Miss Lyons' place as teacher of French and German. She is also a fine musician, the possessor of a rich soprano voice, and will take charge of the choir in the vocal department in addition to her other duties.

Mr. Rotzel who had charge of the business department last year has decided to take a course of study in college. Wm. J. Beahon of Rochester, N. Y., has been secured to take charge of this work. Mr. Beahon has had five years' experience teaching in the public schools of New York. He will bring to Goddard all the best methods of the modern business college.

Although the opening of the year is three weeks distant, the outlook is exceptionally good for a full attendance, many from outside the state having applied for admission. This school, that gives more for the money than any other academy in the state, looks forward to another year of prosperity. The fall term opens, September 6.

A splendid and novel entertainment will be given tonight at 8 o'clock. Among the artists appearing are Mr. J. B. Brown, the comic singer and entertainer; Miss Mabel Wellington, who is a charming comedienne and who sings some of the latest and popular songs; Miss Lillian Potter who, as a lady fencer, has no equal and stands ready to meet all comers either men or women and who will meet Capt. De Malcheat tonight in a 15-point contest; Harry Simond, champion lightweight lifter and wrestler will toss about weights from 50 to 200 pounds as an ordinary man handles a child.

The programme will conclude with a very humorous battle royal.

B. H. WELLS
NOMINATED

Republican Candidate for Representative.

JUSTICE TICKET CONTEST

J. L. Dix Republican and Dr. E. H. Bailey Democratic, in Barre Town. E. M. Tayntor Prohib Candidate.

The Republican city caucus to nominate a candidate for representative was held at city hall last evening with about 100 voters present. F. G. Howland was chairman and H. W. Scott, secretary. R. S. Currier named Burt H. Wells as a man thoroughly qualified to fill the office, and conversant with the needs of Barre city in the way of legislation. He believed he would win out in the election. Robert Ranney seconded the nomination. No other name being presented, Mr. Wells was nominated by acclamation. Mr. Wells was called for, and he spoke briefly saying he hoped he realized the honor that was being conferred upon him and that he would do his best to represent the city if elected. He urged on those present the importance of work for the state, county and city tickets to be voted for next month.

J. P. Marr moved that in accord with past customs a committee of three be appointed to confer with the Democrats on making up a joint justice ticket, but that the Republicans name their eight from the floor. This was carried and the chairman read a communication from the prohibition committee asking that two prohibitionists, R. L. Belknap, and Fred L. Page be given places on the ticket. He then appointed R. S. Currier, C. A. Smith and F. E. Langley to confer with the democratic committee. These gentlemen soon returned to state the Democrats could not confer until they had names to present and the caucus proceeded to name eight Republican candidates for justices. M. M. Gordon presented a list of eight which were taken up one at a time. F. G. Howland and J. W. Gordon were nominated. J. Ward Carver was third on the list, declined to be considered a candidate. A. G. Fay was named but he was rejected. F. J. Martin, James Mackay and Edwin L. Scott were selected without opposition. The name of H. W. Scott was presented for sixth man, but M. M. Gordon wanted a ballot and named Eli Holden in opposition. Mr. Scott was the choice by a vote of 37 to 14. F. B. Mudgett was nominated for seventh man and the names of R. L. Belknap and Angelo Scampini were both named for eighth. A ballot was taken, Mr. Scampini having 24, R. L. Belknap 22 and B. H. Wells 2; there being no choice a second ballot was taken. Scampini receiving 20 and Belknap 26. Mr. Scampini asked his friends to vote for Mr. Belknap and the third ballot resulted in the choice of Belknap by a vote of 30 for him and 10 for Scampini.

The committee then conferred with the Democrats, who submitted as their seven men, Alex. Milne, C. W. Melcher, W. D. Smith, S. H. Forester, P. S. McQuay, M. J. McGowan and George T. Swasey. These were nominated.

The Rangers will play as follows: Roberts, goal; Forbes and Will, backs; Birnie, Cunningham and Durr, half-backs; Rust, McDonald, McLeod, Shariffs and Kesook, forwards; Jopp and Booth, reserves.

The Rangers have got two new men to play, so come out and see what they will do.

The names mentioned in connection with the nomination are G. H. Page, the present representative from Barre, James Brown of the firm of Brown & Nelson, and License Commissioner John E. Smith.

The Democrats of Barre usually decide who they will nominate before going into caucus, and it is doubtful if there is any change in the programme this year.
